

In the wake of inclement weather, the need for an attorney may be the last thing on anyone's mind. However, weather emergencies pose a great deal of legal issues including:

- Property damage/habitability issues
- Lease liability for destroyed/inhabitable premises
- Price gouging
- Repair/clean-up work scams
- And more
- Rent/agreement disputes
- Charitable solicitation fraud
- Property insurance fraud
- Casualty and theft losses

Protect your legal rights during and after inclement weather

LegalShield understands that the recent weather conditions are creating challenges for many. Your legal plan may help you navigate related legal matters, help you understand your rights and find the best path forward. Your Provider Law Firm is standing by to assist.

LegalShield sends a special thank you to all first responders!
