LETTERS OR PHONE CALLS

A provider attorney can provide further help with business legal matters by sending letters or making phone calls on behalf of your business for both in and out-of-state business legal matters, each on a unique business matter, including a follow-up communication if a response is received from a third party. Receive any combination of 40 letters or phone calls annually on separate business legal matters (limit of 10 per month). Your communications can pertain to out-of-state matters. Additional communications may be obtained for a flat fee of $75 each. Collection Letters and Designated Consultations are included in a separate plan benefit section.

DOCUMENT REVIEW

Business legal documents can be complex and confusing. Let your provider law firm help. Submit up to 40 business legal documents per year, up to 25 pages per document, for legal review (limit of 10 documents per month). Document reviews may pertain to out-of-state matters. Additional reviews are available for a flat fee of $75 each. Administrative proceedings and lawsuits are included in the Trial Defense Supplement, which can be purchased separately.

COLLECTION LETTERS

Late paying customers are an unavoidable part of business. Collection letters from a provider attorney could help recoup payment. Your provider law firm will draft up to 15 collection letters each month. Your collection letters may pertain to out-of-state matters. Additional letters are available for a flat fee of $75 each.
